

Parallel World

Karina Pasian

Saw so many glimpses of what we could be
But I've awakened from my obvious fantasy
It's all coming full circle now yet still I'm incomplete
The only thing I breathe has taken its life from me

Ooohhh

Why'd you draw me in knowing you can't fulfill

Maybe in a parallel world you love me like I'm your girl
You treat me right
See eye to eye and nothing is on standby
Yea maybe in another universe
I'm 3rd, and 2nd, and 1st
My paradise where you're all mine and everything is sublime
But this is all in a parallel world
Wish I could go

Everything I've felt before is escaping me
You're just a love that's kept me wrapped up in my sheets
And even though I'm filled with hope when you look into my eyes
We were just a trial that already has expired

Ooohhh

Why'd you twist my mind
Knowing it won't unwind

Maybe in a parallel world you love me like I'm your girl
You treat me right
See eye to eye and nothing is on standby
Yea maybe in another universe
I'm 3rd, and 2nd, and 1st
My paradise where you're all mine and everything is sublime
But this is all in a parallel world
Wish I could go

It feels like it's there
So it's gotta be coming from somewhere

Maybe in a parallel world you love me like I'm your girl
You treat me right
See eye to eye and nothing is on standby
Yea maybe in another universe
I'm 3rd, and 2nd, and 1st
My paradise where you're all mine and everything is sublime
But this is all in a parallel world
Wish I could go
