

Ocean View

Karl Wolf

(Oh oh oh oh, oh oh oh... oh oh)...

You're a phenomenon I can't explain
I've tried but I can't find a way
Following rivers and chasing desires
It's all I wanna know but I can't fake it

I surrender to the of pull of your tides
Your current's around me, I'm diving through rough seas
And though you might be the end of me tonight
Drowning in you, your body's got an ocean view

(Oh oh oh oh, oh oh oh... oh oh)
Your body's got an ocean view...

You're a phenomenon I can't explain
I've tried but I can't find a way
Following rivers and chasing desires
It's all I wanna know but I can't fake it

I surrender to the of pull of your tides
Your current's around me, I'm diving through rough seas
And though you might be the end of me tonight
Drowning in you, your body's got an ocean view

(Oh oh oh oh, oh oh oh... oh oh)
Your body's got an ocean view...

Girl, you know I'm on a wave on your ivory coast
Trip to the Galapagos and I'll never let go
Mouth of the river to south of France and Monaco
Water all over your clothes... woah...

(Oh oh oh oh, oh oh oh... oh oh)
Your body's got an ocean view...
