

Fool Me

Karnivool

You never come when I call you
You're always there with a smile
I'm only here to prepare you
For this grim some time
I said you look so hollow
You're never there with a smile
Take it all down with you
Make it worth your while

You cannot fool me
So just runaway, runaway

You never come when I call you
I see the look in your eyes
I know you just won't help me
I know you just won't try
So what if they don't listen
So what if they don't care
So what if I need you
Ain't nothing left out here

You cannot fool me
So just runaway, runaway
With me, while begging you please
Run with me
I know what you want inside
Longing you look to hide
Running away from here
Take it or leave it now
Your chance is up somehow
Running so blind and scared

I came here to say today
You're fucked up in every way
Wrap it up with your abuse
Nothing here can cut you loose
Run, run, run away if you dare
I see that sweat I know you're there
Looking back on this ordeal
It doesn't matter to me
