

Unbreakable

Karyn White

Baby, I'm so convinced by the way you treat me
It makes me you don't wanna be with me.
Your actions and words don't mean a thing
I feel the pain.

But I don't cry all these tears and now I'm all alone
If this is for the best, then that's what love's about.
Nothing in the edge, telling me lies.
I thought that I can take no more, though my heart's unbreakable.

Pick up the pieces to my heart.
Put it together, a brand new start.
Been through it all, learning through the pain,
And do it all, my heart remains

Unbreakable, unbreakable,
Unbreakable, my heart's unbreakable.
Unbreakable, put your hands to my chest
Rip my heart right out my soul,
I'm unbreakable.

Let's keep it cool,
Around my friends you made me look like a fool.
I'm running from the truth, it's catching up to you
And wrap my love to pieces with all the games you played,
You need to act your age.

You sit and smile in my face and say you love me
When you're out with your boys you disrespect me.
Look me in the eyes, you're telling me lies,
I thought that I can take no more, thought my heart's unbreakable.

Pick up the pieces to my heart.
Put it together, a brand new start.
Been through it all, learning through the pain,
And do it all, my heart remains

Unbreakable, unbreakable,
Unbreakable, my heart's unbreakable.
Unbreakable, put your hands to my chest
Rip my heart right out my soul,
I'm unbreakable.

Now I'm done, I'm moving one,
Me minus one it equals some.
Baby, I won't shed a tear,
I stood around all these years.
See, I, I made it through the pain
No other woman will treat you the same.
What goes up comes down,
What goes around comes back around
You played me like a fool,
But it's coming back to you.

Pick up the pieces to my heart.
Put it together, a brand new start.
Been through it all, learning through the pain,

And do it all, my heart remains

Unbreakable, unbreakable,
Unbreakable, my heart's unbreakable.
Unbreakable, put your hands to my chest
Rip my heart right out my soul,
I'm unbreakable.
