

Bumblebee

Kasabian

Get him a message? A message from me
I'm caught up in love, and I'm in ecstasy
What can I do now, when nothing's the same?
And all that I know, I wanna do it again (well, tell me now)
Life is so simple when you are with me
'Cause when we're together, I'm in ecstasy
I'm in ecstasy
I'm in ecstasy
I'm in ecstasy

Everybody go!
All you pretty things, get on board this mothership
All you've got to be is ready for action, baby

Don't think I'm twisted, as a matter of fact
Welcome you now to the second act
Where I fight off robots, and a men in a suits
Wear out the souls of your monkey boots
I can't get enough of the sunshine
I can't get enough of the moonlight
And all the colours that are coming on strong
Trying to hold on
Trying to hold on
Can't get enough of the oceans
Can't get enough of the mantra
All we will ever feel is ecstasy
We're in ecstasy
We're in ecstasy
We're in ecstasy

Everybody go!
All you pretty things, get on board this mothership
All you've got to be is ready for action, baby

I can't get enough of the sunshine
I can't get enough of the moonlight
And all the colours that are coming on strong
Trying to hold on
Trying to hold on
Can't get enough of the oceans
Can't get enough of the mantra
All we will ever feel is ecstasy
We're in ecstasy
We're in ecstasy
We're in ecstasy

Everybody go!
All you pretty things, get on board this mothership
All you've got to be is ready for action, baby
Ready for action, baby
Ready for action, baby
