

Darkest Lullaby

Kasabian

Oh, my love tears me apart
Oh, I don't know where I'm going now
Can we get back to the darkest lullaby?

I was afraid we'd gotten so high
Down in the doldrums and hearing your lie
Always complaining and never the same, aw
And out on the dance floor, the lighting down low
Passion for danger, I'm feeling your flow
And for a moment forgetting the pain

Oh, my love tears me apart
Oh, I don't know where I'm going now
Can we get back to the start?
Inside my mind
I try to find
Oh, I don't know where I'm going now
When you sing me your darkest lullaby

You tell me it's over, I'm wishing you well
I'm just a ghost living under your spell
Keeping your secrets, it's all in the game, aw
So glad, so glad I met ya
So glad, so glad I met ya
So sad I can't forget you now

Oh, my love tears me apart
Oh, I don't know where I'm going now
Can we go back to the start?
Inside my mind
I try to find
Oh, I don't know where I'm going now
When you sing me your darkest lullaby

Tears me apart
Oh, my love tears me apart
