

(Throw it up, run it down, kick it till it breaks)

Get the vile, get the blood, give me aggro
Take 'em all on my own like in Rambo
On a roll, gotta reach for the light
Gotta reach for the mic as I walk from the shadow

Out of sight, out of mind with a blind fold
Fight fires like a god in choke hold
Innovate my time, my place
I'm keeping my cut from the liar to the gallow

Even though I'm full of it
I'll always puff my chest out
You can tell the Antichrist
You're fucking with the best now

I don't wanna stop oh oh oh
You think you wanna be oh oh oh
Never gonna let you go-oh
Took it to the top oh oh oh
I don't wanna be no hero
Never gonna let you go-oh

Blind as the old man
Dreaming in the sun
As I lay you down to die
Love is a fire
Burns in everyone
We can fly till it gets you home

I don't wanna stop oh oh oh
You think you wanna be oh oh oh
Never gonna let you go-oh
Took it to the top oh oh oh
I don't wanna be no hero
Never gonna let you go-oh

Blind as the old man
Dreaming in the sun
As I lay you down to die
Love is a fire
Burns in everyone
We can fly till it gets you home

Blind as the old man
Dreaming in the sun
As I lay you down to die
Love is a fire
Burns in everyone
We can fly till it gets you home
Fly till it gets you home
We can fly till it gets you home
