

Surrender

Kasey Chambers

It's not that I don't care
I know its here somewhere
But its more than I can bare to take
I lie awake at night
I never win the fight
Its an addiction I cant shake
Its overbearing me
Growing, flowing, showing

I surrender, forever
I fold, I played the losing card
I'm under
Its over
I give it up its all too hard

It's not I'm unsure
I've heard it all before
But I cant help wanting more to keep
You just don't understand
The way I really am
Its all I ever can be
But underneath it all
I'm breaking, waking, shaking

I surrender, forever
I fold, I played the losing card
I'm under
Its over
I give it up its all too hard

And now I face it all
I'm falling, crawling, stalling

I surrender, forever
I fold, I played the losing card
I'm under
Its over
I give it up its all too hard

I surrender, forever
I fold, I played the losing card
I'm under
Its over
I give it up its all too hard
