

This Love, This love

Kashmir

This love, this love that you keep on throwing in
Is cutting a canyon through my trust
I thought, I thought that I could be rolling in
'Cause I could be leaving all untouched

But it isn't as complex
As I love to give it to be

Kiss away the darker age
Wrapped away the spots of rage
So will you be my last of
Last until the fall of my days

This love, this love that I was so scared to catch
Has pulled a pause back into my realest
And wink at times you said with the face of stone
But I will wait to see you through

But it isn't as complex
As I love to give it to be

Kiss away the darker age
Wrapped away the spots of rage
So will you be my last of
Last until the fall of my days

Kiss away the darker age
Call me through the buzz of the cage
So will you be my last of
Last until the fall of my days
