

if only

Kaskade

It's all ashes
What the hell just happened
Somehow I'm still standing
But I'm asking what for

And it's tragic
And I swear it's the saddest
That I've ever been
But I'd do it again

It's all ashes
I'm here holding the matches
It's madness
How hard we ran out of compassion

If only
Our tears could put out the fire
We're lonely
We're here holding the flame

If only
Our tears could put out the fire
We're lonely
We're here holding the flame

If only
We're here holding the flame

It's all ashes
What the hell just happened
