Lay Down

Kaskade

Come and lay down
Let my love be the last thing
That you feel before your dreams
Take you away

Come and lay down
Let me whisper serenade
I will be here as you wake
To a new day

And I know
That this, is only now
So come lay down
Come lay down
And you, and I
Are only now

So come lay down
Come lay down

When you break down
Let me calm your tired heart
Mine can carry both of us
Falling apart

Won't let you down
Let me make the quiet stay
Here in arms until our fear
Can walk away

And I know
That this, is only now
So come lay down
Come lay down

And you, and I
Are only now
So come lay down
Come lay down
