

Please Say You Will

Kaskade

If I were to pull you down
Would you see as I see now
And if you choose to turn
And draw the curtains that surround
Would you then be the one
Would you be the one

This love is not complete
This love does not complete me
This love is not complete
This love does not complete me

If I were to try
Would you try with me
Love, please say you will
And when we choose to pull
All the wool from off our eyes
Would you still be the one

This love is not complete
This love does not complete me
This love is not complete
This love does not complete me

Would you try with me
(This love is not complete)
Love, please say you will
Would you try with me
(This love does not complete me)
Love, please say you will
Would you try with me
Love, please say you will
Love, please say you will
Love, please say you will