

started over

Kaskade

Doors are closing
Hold me like you did before
In the darkness
Let it show

Does it break you?
Do I hold you back?
Can we see through
When the writing's on the wall?
If I touch you
Would it change my heart?
We can't undo
'Cause the writing's on the wall

But I wonder
If I turn back time
Yes I wonder

If we started over
Put ourselves aside
Could we learn to love again
And leave this all behind
If we started over
And let go of our pride
Would we recognize it
If it hit between the eyes
If we started over
If we started over

Close the curtain
This is when you lose control
You can't face it
And it shows
That it breaks you
And it holds me back
I can't change you, no
Now the writing's on the wall
If we push through
Could we make it back
To what we once knew
Now the writing's on the wall

But I wonder
If I turn back time
Yes I wonder

If we started over
Put ourselves aside
Could we learn to love again
And leave this all behind
If we started over
And let go of this pride
Would we recognize it
If it hit between the eyes
If we started over
