Whatever

Kaskade

When you take my hand, I don't know the consequence
Is it innocent if you don't know what the other meant

You think that anyone would notice, notice
You think that anyone would notice, notice this

This can be our little secret
Whatever you wanna call it
This can be complicated
Whatever you wanna call it

You roll the windows down when we cross your side of town
It's such a guilty sound, turn that phone to silent now

You think that anyone would notice, notice
You think that anyone would notice, notice this

Whatever you wanna call it
This can be complicated
Whatever you wanna call it

Before you don't know, we're better this way
Before you don't know, let her be
Before we don't know

This can be our little secret
Whatever you wanna call it
This can be complicated
Whatever you wanna call it

Oh, you don't know
Oh, you don't know
Whatever you wanna call it
