

Heavyweight

Kassi Ashton

I put this pink blush on my cheeks and paint shine on my lips
The mirror says I'm just a girl but boy hey don't forget
I'm stronger than you think
Ain't breaking like the dishes in the sink
So go on and roll up your sleeves

Lay it on me like a heavyweight
Go on and give it to me straight
Whatever you got to say I appreciate
Just the bare bone cold hard truth
I'd rather be alone
To be honest I'm a full grown woman
And I can handle your hardest shot
Give me what you got
I've seen way worse than you
Baby I ain't afraid
Ain't nothing that I can't take
Lay it on me like a heavyweight, heavyweight yeah

I ain't gon' cry, that ain't my style, I'll fight my way right through Push and shove, I don't give up, yeah that's just what I do
I'm stronger than you know
Ain't screaming like the kettle on the stove
So go on, don't break it to me slow

Lay it on me like a heavyweight
Go on and give it to me straight
Whatever you got to say I appreciate
Just the bare bone cold hard truth
I'd rather be alone
To be honest I'm a full grown woman
And I can handle your hardest shot
Give me what you got
I've seen way worse than you
Baby I ain't afraid
Ain't nothing that I can't take
Lay it on me like a heavyweight, heavyweight yeah

Lay it on me like a heavyweight
Go on and give it to me straight
Whatever you got to say I appreciate
Just the bare bone cold hard truth
I'd rather be alone
To be honest I'm a full grown woman
And I can handle your hardest shot
Give me what you got
I've seen way worse than you
Baby I ain't afraid
Ain't nothing that I can't take
Lay it on me like a heavyweight, heavyweight, heavyweight
