

Dead

Kat Von D

Why can't you fall back in love with me? Yeah
Whenever I'm around you I can't breath

And I'm falling like a page
From the vows we made
And the promises, they fade
Let the kingdom cry

You tell me that you love me, love me
You tell me that you want me, want me
You tell me that you love me, love me
You tell me that you want me, want me

Dead
Dead
Dead
You tell me that you want me
Dead
Dead
Dead
You tell me that you want me
Dead

Falling in the grave you dug for me, yeah
To everything we were R.I.P

And I'm falling like a page
From the vows we made
And the promises, they fade
Let the kingdom cry

You tell me that you love me, love me
You tell me that you want me, want me
You tell me that you love me, love me
You tell me that you want me, want me

Dead
Dead
Dead
You tell me that you want me
Dead
Dead
Dead
You tell me that you want me
Dead
Dead
Dead
You tell me that you want me
Dead
Dead
Dead
You tell me that you want me
Dead

You tell me that you love me, love me
You tell me that you want me, want me
You tell me that you love me, love me
You tell me that you want me, want me
