

Illusion

Kat Von D

Oh, I hear the words that you say it cuts me like a knife
Until I die, I'll be dancing alone under the neon light
I, I can't wait
For the love that we had in this bed you were meant to stay
No baby, I, I can't wait
For the love that you said you would give but then you take

Tell me oh, was it just an illusion
This heart you've been using
Tell me oh, was it just an illusion
Trapped in confusion
Just an illusion
Just an illusion, I know

Baby, I don't wanna disrespect but there's just nothing left
And still I cry, put a smile on this face but I'm still a mess
Oh I, I can't wait
For the love that we had in this bed you were meant to stay
No baby, I, I can't wait
For the love that you said you would give but then you take

You tell me oh, was it just an illusion
This heart you've been using
Tell me oh, was it just an illusion
Trapped in confusion
Just an illusion
Just an illusion, I know

Cause my heartbeat goes but it just won't stop
When I'm locked away with your brittle heart
Tell me oh, was it just an illusion
Trapped in confusion
Just an illusion
Just an illusion, I know

Time won't stop, falling apart
When I look back you're gone
Maybe I'm wrong
Time won't stop, falling apart
When I look back you're gone
Maybe I'm wrong

It's just an illusion
It's just an illusion, I know
It's just an illusion
It's just an illusion, I know
