

Protected

Kat Von D

The sons of dolphins have learned to sleep
Their only way to find and keep

Take your journey, protected slow
Take your journey, protected slow

Flip a splash, onto the shore
Where they walk asleep as they look for more
The sons of dolphins have learned to sleep
They found a rest and they never weep

Take your journey, protected slow
Take your journey, protected slow

You are a dolphin when you shine
Thank the water of your divine
Inside you, it resides
You shall swim and abide

Take your journey, protected slow
Wave as strangers as you go
