

Let There be Fire

Kat

Let there be fire
No one would let you know
Fire
No one would let you go
Fire
No one would let you glow Neither come 'cross the sea nobody but me

Let there be fire
No one would let you blow
Fire
No one would let you glow

Shine like precious stone Diamond in liquid gold Melt 'em down solid chains
and melt into my arms

Crack down on icy walls and walk away Rollin' down the road
my blues I play

The way tonight
you save us again
Once again, once again...

Crack down on the coyness crack down on the snakes Crack down on the pinchbeck crack down on the fakes

I know cold of the freeze
and mountains of ice
the mountains of ice
mountains of ice

I know cold of the freeze
Mountains of ice
passel of vice tarnish of life

Let there be fire
Now I would let you know
Fire
Now I would let you glow
Let there be fire
Now I would let you know
Fire
Let there be fire
Now I would let you blow
Fire
Let there be fire
