Light or Hell

Daily stress Takes you down Your brain's exploding Nothing can calm your pain, you say

You wanna leave this world of liars, yeah 'cause anger grows inside your mind

No matter if comes light or hell, light or hell You've gotta stay in pride No matter who rules they or hell, they or hell Defend your bleeding mind

You want to stay here no longer, no longer You want to eat the politicsshit no more

So far so cool they think you're a fool You've gotta believe in their sick truth Don't give them a chance, no more Defend your bleeding mind

No matter if comes light or hell, light or hell You've gotta stay in pride No matter who rules they or hell, they or hell

No matter if comes light or hell, light or hell No matter who rules they or hell Light or hell

No matter if comes light or hell, light or hell No matter who rules they or hell, they or hell

No matter if comes light or hell, light or hell No matter who rules they or hell Light or hell
