

The Killshot

Kataklysm

Here I come again
This time, to ruin your life
Because, everything you say is a lie
Everything you are is a lie
And I'm here to sever the ties

Fear the face of hate
The face of fear
And all the things that you never could see
These words won't kill
The silence will and everything you fail to reap
I feel your wrath
I feel your heart
I feel everything you are
This bond you broke
This trust you took
The monster you created is here

I know the things you did
I know who you really are!
Sow the seeds of confrontation
Into the soul of annihilation
Take the steps to enter the void
A declaration of war!

I'm locked and loaded
And I won't miss
This is the killshot
I'm locked and loaded
And I won't miss
This is my killshot

Face the face of war
The face of death
And all the justice that you deserve
You bring the dark
I bring the light
Your blood will spill in the hands of dissent
The sky will fall
Your world will end
And so will the lies you try to mend
My name is truth
My name is death
And I have come to take you away

We know the things you did, the things you did
I know who you really are!
Sow the seeds of confrontation
Into the soul of annihilation
Take the steps to enter the void
A declaration of war!

I'm locked and loaded
And I won't miss
This is the killshot
I'm locked and loaded
And I won't miss

This is my killshot
