I Break

Katatonia

Sounds of imbalance Sleeps through the never The artificial lightsource Is creeping with flies

And this time i break I will never make Another day Defiant to what's delivered

I will find a way To sever myself Exit all today You can't see this Did you ever say I break sever I will find a way Visit me when i'm there

The weakness of hope Is the strength of decline Remember what's past ways And what i've become The joy of not being Something i need I'm only weather But only to me
