

Don't Did It

Katchafire

Oh no you done did it
No you did not do that at all
I won't let you forget it
Won't let you forget this at all
Blowing out like a light bulb
Feel the aroma
Feeling left out in the cold
You best go home

If you want it you got it don't wait for no one
Go run to your surprise
If you want it go get it don't wait for no one
Got to take your own advice

I'll go blame it on Kenneth
And it's not even Kenneth's fault
Why don't you admit it
Been acting funny but we've known it all
Its blowing up in your face now
Like an explosion
Someone's taking your place now
Don't say I told ya

Hey you got to wake up, got to get out, got to get movin' (repeat)
