

Breathe Deeper

Kate Havnevik

You're no longer a candy boy
You're mr.moonlight
You've been set free
Still you a bound
You are filled with guilt
I think you're smart and beautiful
Like angels above
You're not alone
Still on your own
I know how you feel

If you ever need a hand
Or if you ever need someone

I feel your fear
See your moods changing
I know you're scared
Breathe deeper and
Don't be afraid to let out your pain
Don't let these waves
Push your troubles in your way

You're waiting for a shooting star
It won't come for a while
Collect your thoughts and stay calm
Your moving on
You're nearly there
Still you are here
Choices confuse
But you are free you don't need me
Anymore

If you ever wanna talk
Or if you ever need someone

I feel your fear
See your moods changing
I know you're scared
Breathe deeper and
Don't be afraid to let out your pain
Don't let these waves
Push your troubles in your way

I have been there
I have seen it
I have felt it
And I still do, I do, I do, I do
