You've got a fearless heart
And a cautious mind
You want it so bad
You feel like you're going blind
Moves like the ocean
Brushes your skin
Those eyes wide open
Pulling you in

You can't let it go
Still, you don't give in
So brace yourself
It comes from within

Forbidden
Forbidden fruit

A garden rises
Electric flowers
Full of surprises
And unknown powers
Our kingdom come
Has it come to an end?
Promises fade
Beauty remains

You can't let it go
Still, you don't give in
So brace yourself
Let it come from within

Forbidden
Forbidden fruit
Don't let it waste away
Don't let it waste away
Don't let it waste away
Promises fade
Beauty remains
Don't let it waste away
Don't let it waste away
Don't let it waste away
Forbidden
Forbidden fruit
