Kate Havnevik

Angry boy peeping through the blinds
Always falling, never flies
Open palms closing into fists
Hating brother in the chrysalis

I can't figure you out
I don't know what you're about
Still I'm not letting go of you

Tell me how did it come to this
Painful silence, shadowed innocence

I can't figure you out
I don't know what you're about
Still I'm not letting go of you
You won't lacking me out
Would I recognize you now
Still I'm not giving up on you

Lonely angel
How do you do it out
Tainted angel
Come on out

All alone, Christmas in the dark
I couldn't reach you but I'll never stop
Calling to you

I can't figure you out
I don't know what you're about
Still I'm not letting go of you
You won't lacking me out
Would I recognize you now
Still I'm not giving up on you
