

Taking Flight

Kate Havnevik

Into darkness
We'll take our now from then
Stare through regardless
We're on our way again

Redeem and they will let me open
Mystery
All things leave less alone for a moment
Just to breathe

We're taking flight from day and night
We'll be alright
We're taking flight, we're starry-eyed

Cascading flows of emotion
Crack the ice
Oh, please, leave us alone for a moment
Spiraling high

We're taking flight from day and night
We'll be alright
We're taking flight, we're starry-eyed

We're taking flight from day and night
We'll be alright
We're taking flight, we're starry-eyed
We're taking flight
We're taking flight
We're taking flight
We're taking flight
