

Think Again

Kate Havnevik

Only you
I wanna be in love with you.
I don't wanna get over you.
I want you here.

Me and you,
Maybe I'm no good for you.
Alter strain the line from you.
Can't you see?

Summer is coming to a close.
Dreaming's over once again.
It's still quiet in this town.
I know where things to end.
And I...
I'm not to see you.

Only you,
I wanna make a pround of you.
Is that how I get over you?
Set you free.

Broke into
Moving onto [?] you.
I know I'll smile on you.
Clear on me

Summer is coming to a close.
Dreaming's over once again.
It's still quiet in this town.
I know where things to end.
And I...
I'm not to see you.

Think again.
I know that I'm losing you.
I know that I'm losing you.
Think again.
But I don't wanna get over you.
