

A Quiet Voice

Kate Miller-Heidke

I remember pencil on a paper
Summer days that slowly came unfurled
One more tallie, tell me a story
Kissed so much we didn't see the movie
Sleeping with my arms around the world

I wanna listen to a quiet voice
A gentle sound
Let me listen to a quiet voice
It's all too loud inside my head

I'm calling out
I yell, I shout, I drown it out
Give me back my choice
Let me listen to a quiet

Voice, right now
The noise, the low-key freaking out
Give me back my choice
Let me listen to a quiet voice

Shiny ship that's searching for an anchor
Lost and scattered
The heart of the matter
The heart of the matter

I wanna listen to a quiet voice
A gentle sound
Let me listen to a quiet voice
It's all too loud inside my head

I'm calling out
I yell, I shout, I drown it out
Give me back my choice
Let me listen to a quiet

Voice, right now
The noise, the low-key freaking out
Give me back my choice
Let me listen to a quiet voice

Too loud
Too loud, too loud, too loud

One more tallie, tell me a story
Kissed so much we didn't see the movie
Sleeping with my arms around the world

Let me listen to a quiet
Voice, right now
It's not the life I dreamed about
Give me back my choice
Let me listen to a quiet voice

Right now, the noise
The low-key freaking out
Give me back my choice

Let me listen to a quiet voice

Too loud

Too loud, too loud, too loud
