

You Can't Hurt Me Anymore

Kate Miller-Heidke

I've been haunted by you lately
Ever since I heard the news
Memories that will never leave me
All roads leading back to you

I got good at keeping secrets
I got good at doing the dance
We're a product of what feeds us
You never gave me half a chance

Called out to the stars
Wished for you to cry
Called out to the moon
Wished for you to die
I called out to the spheres
They did not hear me cry
I guess this is goodbye
I hold my head up high

You can't hurt me anymore
You can't hurt me anymore

We're so good at hiding bruises
We're so good at feeling shame
When you're tiny no one listens
Nobody will name the name

Now that you are in the ground
We'll never hear your lies again
I've found my voice
It's stronger than I ever could have imagined

I called out to the stars
I wished for you to cry
I called out to the moon
I wished for you to die
I called out to the spheres
They did not hear me cry
I guess this is goodbye
I hold my head up high

You can't hurt me anymore
You can't hurt me anymore
You can't hurt me
You can't hurt me
You can't hurt me
Anymore
