Sorry I've been hard to get a hold of lately
I've been having trouble picking up the phone
But not literally though 'cause in actual fact
I can't put this shit down, I can't leave it alone
The occasional occasion when I feel like I can talk
I try and call you back but then you don't pick up
It's nothing on you though, it's entirely my problem
It happens all too often these days, man I keep getting stuck

I just don't know what's got into you lately
Every time I call you it rings and rings and rings

Sorry I weren't too chatty when you saw me
It's just that I was feeling a little bit poorly
I got caught up in some bullshit drama
To do with my girl and her baby's father
Just when I thought my life was getting a bit calmer
Just when I thought things were on the right track
But anyway, how've you been? Not good I'm assuming Considering you're back in this town where we keep getting stuck

I just don't know what's got into you lately
Every time I call you it rings and rings and rings
I just don't know what's got into you lately
Every time I call you it rings and rings and rings
Rings and it rings and it rings and it

Is it something that I said?
Is it something that I didn't say?
Maybe I'm overthinking
But just give me a call anyway
I got work in the morning
I'm about in the afternoon
I got plans in the evening
But I'll change them for you
