

Broken

Kate Ryan

Oh oh oh oh oh oh...

Relationships ain't nothing but a plane waitin' to crash
No matter what the turbulence, you never fly permanent
But I'm finally awoken, I'm losing high altitude
I'm feeling like I'm choking
But baby I ain't mad at you cause I'm already broken
I'm ready to relive
And you ain't got to worry cause I'm ready to forgive

Tonight I'm letting go of everything
You can't reach me, I'm a million miles away
My heart is made of steel, don't feel any pain
I don't feel any pain

You can't hurt me
You can't touch me now
You can't break me
'Cause I'm already broken, broken

You can't hurt me
You can't make me cry
You can't break me
Cause I'm already broken now

Oh oh oh oh oh oh...

I see you look at her
Like you once looked at me
It's OK, I'm better off
You're no good, no good for me

Tonight I'm letting go of everything
You can't reach me, I'm a million miles away
My heart is made of steel, don't feel any pain
I don't feel any pain

You can't hurt me...
You can't break me...

I'm broken but I love it
Heartaches, I'm above it
Ugly and bipolar
How she treat me like an ogre
Throughout the complications
I write and show you gratitude
You know that I could never
Ever do you wrong
I feel a little faded but I'm strong
And I can not let my emotions on this song
Not that I'm denying
But you'll never see me crying
Not for Kate Ryan

You can't hurt me

'Cause I'm already broken, broken

You can't hurt me

Oh oh oh oh oh oh...

I'm already broken, broken
