

Leave It Alone

Kate Ryan

Interrogating me
What do you think I see
I guess you think I have
A crystal ball - crystal ball

And it's annoying me
Your never ending need
Who will you blame if we just
Hit the wall - hit the wall

You want from me
A guarantee
That cannot be
Because it's impossible
I'd have to lie
But how can I
It isn't right
You know it's impossible

Leave it alone (yeah yeah yeah)
I'm not going home now
I came for the party
Leave it alone (yeah yeah yeah)
Don't get on my bad side
I came for the party

Love's only meant to take
So much before it breaks
So let it go and let's
Live the dream - live the dream

Don't look at me if we Aren't what you want to be
Maybe I'll change my mind
Impulsively - suddenly

You want from me
A guarantee
That cannot be
Because it's impossible
I'd have to lie
But how can I
It isn't right
You know it's impossible

Leave it alone (yeah yeah yeah)
I'm not going home now
I came for the party
Leave it alone (yeah yeah yeah)
Don't get on my bad side
I came for the party

Leave it alone (yeah yeah yeah)
Leave it alone (yeah yeah yeah)

Leave it alone (yeah yeah yeah)
I'm not going home now

I came for the party
Leave it alone (yeah yeah yeah)
Don't get on my bad side
I came for the party
[2x]

Came for the party
Leave it alone!
