Broken carnival ride that never stops
Circus stops swallows at night
I've been here many times
Thanks to you
I see the look on your face
The one that saying
Trust me babe I'm gonna change
Please forgive my mistakes
And just when I'm starting to

There you go letting me down again
Shut me out again, Yeah Yeah
There you go breaking my heart again
Rip me apart again
I know that you can
And I hate It cause I take It
And I'm not okay but I fake it, Oh Oh
There you go cutting me down again
Spin me around again
On this whole carousel

A vicious cycle of lies
Why am I in the least bit surprise
This is exactly the type of thing you do, Yeah Yeah
Your so predictable now
Now I let you chew me up just to spit me out
And I don't know how
After you all put me through

There you go letting me down again
Shut me out again, Yeah Yeah
There you go breaking my heart again
Rip me apart again
I know that you can
And I hate It cause I take It
And I'm not okay but I fake it, Oh Oh
There you go cutting me down again
Spin me around again
On this whole carousel

You know you spin me around round merry go around please waiting me out
I'm tearing you down
Love love I've had enough
Your messing me up
Got my feet on the ground
Cause i'm getting out of

Your letting me out again
Shut me out again Yeah Yeah
There you go breaking my heart again
Rip me apart again
I know that you can
And I hate It cause I take It
And I'm not okay but I fake it, Oh Oh
There you go cutting me down again
Spin me around again

On this whole carousel
