

The Dark Knight

Kate Walsh

Come down from your cloud,
'Cause it rains and it thunders so loud,
But you can't hear the sounds that I hear,
You keep moving in closer,
Until you disappear,

It comes down to this night,
Where you and I will see the light,
But how did you think it would help me,
To sleep holding me tightly?

Well you are the dark knight,
And you were meant to save my life,

You're not much smarter than I,
Since that unforgiveable thing that I
Couldn't do,
Did you think it would help you,
To leave me with a taint of you?

Of you,
You,
The dark knight,
'Cause you were meant to save my life,

But I won't stop believing,
That you could stop believing,
And however long you leave me standing,
I won't stop waiting,
I won't stop waiting,
For you,
You,
The dark knight,
'Cause you were meant to save my life.
