Katelyn Tarver

I've been the nice type
Nice guy
The sorry excuse I don't wanna fight type
No lie
I've let the criticism and the talk win
Talking
Telling myself I'm no good I'm a has been
But that's then this is now

I've made up my mind
Oh I won't apologize
I've made up my mind
Oh I'm taking back my time

Shut up listen now
I guess you forgot
I don't belong in your box
Baby I'm getting tired
Walking this wire
Don't mistake the
Southern smile on my face
I've come too far to play games
Baby it's off the table
I'm done with all these labels

I've been the low threat
Safe bet
Way too caught up with the pressure to impress
So stressed
I've let the highs and the lows keep me quiet
Silent
Stayed in the shadow all sweet and compliant
But that's then and this is now

I've made up my mind
I won't apologize
I've made up my mind
I'm taking back my time

Shut up listen now
I guess you forgot
I don't belong in your box
Baby I'm getting tired
Walking this wire
Don't mistake the
Southern smile on my face
I've come too far to play games
Baby it's off the table
I'm done with all these labels

I've made up my mind
I'm better now, I'm ready now, forget about
The girl you knew
I'm taking what's mine
Don't stop me now, I'm coming out
I'm saying it straight to your face like

Shut up listen now
I guess you forgot
I've come too far to play games
