

Nicer

Katelyn Tarver

I used to be nicer
I was the girl who'd do anything
To make everyone like her
That shit makes you tired
I used to say sorry
It wasn't worth all the arguing
I'd let somebody rob me
And then I'd buy 'em a coffee

Look at all the time and energy I wasted
Feels like overnight I forgot how to fake it

I used to be sweeter
Biting my tongue when I disagreed
Like if I was meaner
The people I love would see me differently

Look at all the time and energy I wasted
Feels like overnight I forgot how to fake it
If it's on my mind now I don't try and change it
Cause look at all the time and energy I wasted

Look at all the time and energy I wasted
Feels like overnight I forgot how to fake it
If it's on my mind now I don't try and change it
Cause look at all the time and energy I wasted
