

Fire Away

Katerine Duska

Shoot, fire away
Shoot, fire away
And only then can we reveal what's inside
Shoot, fire away, baby
Make me your prey
In this age of decay
We'll then believe that there's much more to ignite
Shoot, fire away, baby

Don't back down, aim high

Oh, I know you well
Know you're aware of these walls inside me
Of these walls you act like you cannot break
Oh, I need resuscitating
And I know that there are these walls inside me
Only you can deteriorate
So shoot and fire away
Shoot and fire away, baby

Shoot, fire away
Shoot, fire away
Unleash all that is buried deep inside
Shoot, fire away, baby
Erupt, inflame my soul
Make me yell "mayday"
To your foul play
Be merciless, don't let no pain subside
Shoot and fire away, baby

Don't back down, aim high

Oh, I know you well
Know you're aware of these walls inside me
Of these walls you act like you cannot break
Oh, 'cause I need resuscitating
And I know that there are these walls inside me
Only you can deteriorate
So shoot and fire away
Shoot and fire away, baby
Shoot and fire away
Shoot and fire away, baby

Turn these walls inside me into your biggest threat
Tear them down, quit stalling, you'll meet no regrets
Turn these walls inside me into your final debt
As our worlds are colliding, I'm your only threat

Shoot down these walls inside me, make that your safest bet
Break these bars that surround me, I promise no regrets
Turn these walls inside me into your final debt
As our worlds are colliding, I'm your only threat
