Hush little baby, don't you cry
Inspiration will find you tonight, tonight
No more praying for help divine
Give into this lullaby, tonight

'Cause I long for something more
Can't hide it
And I long for something pure
Can't fight it

Show me where the sparks just fly
Can the silence ever help my mind?

Hush little baby, it's alright
All your troubles illuminate
At night
At night
Just a little reflection is all you seek Give yourself some space and
Time to breathe the air
Time to breathe the air

'Cause I long for something more
Can't fight it

Show me where the sparks just fly
You've been waiting your whole life
Inspiration will find you tonight
Silence never helped my mind?
You've been waiting your whole life
Inspiration will find you tonight

All I wanna know
It's all I wanna know

Show me where the sparks just fly

Show me where the sparks just fly
You've been waiting your whole life
Inspiration will find you tonight
Silence never helped my mind?
You've been waiting your whole life
Inspiration will find you tonight

You've been waiting your whole life
Inspiration will find you tonight
You've been waiting your whole life
Inspiration will find you tonight

Is it clear for us to see?
Aspiration, honesty
