

Pine

Kathleen Edwards

I don't want to pine for anyone
Don't want to come undone
I don't want to stand on shaky ground
Thinking you might come around

Don't want to live in a fairytale
Everyone knows it never ends well
When the lights come up you gotta go home
We've both been there before

I know you know we just can't say it
You know I know we'd live to regret it
I know that you know when we go our separate ways
The thought of you stays

Don't want to have to try to be all cool
Eyes down when you walk into the room
Saw a picture of you on the street
Wearing your favorite jeans

Don't want to think about your beat up shoes
Laying on the floor next to someone who Doesn't know you the way that I do
And not the way that I want to

I know you know we just can't say it
You know I know we would live to regret it
I know you know when we go our separate ways
The thought of you stays

And when you talk and I can't help but not smile
You make it so easy
I swear to God, I saw your eyes go wide
When you were looking at me

And when you moved to somewhere far away...

I don't want to pine for anyone
Don't want to come undone
Don't want to stand on shaky ground
Hoping to see you around

I know you know that we just can't say it
You know I know we would live to regret it
I know you know when we go our separate ways
The thought of you stays

And the thought of you stays
And the thought of you stays

And the thought of you stays
And the thought of you stays
