

All Is Well

Kathy Troccoli

Lord, I need You
Help me to see You
Through the darkness
Covering my heart
I've been fighting
But, I'm so tired
It feels like
My whole world is torn apart
When I'm weak
In my faith
By your grace
I can say

Chorus:
All is well
All is well
You are Lord
And all is well
You're the hope for my heart
And a peace beyond myself
You are Lord
And all is well

Thank You Jesus
For Your presence
Even when it feels
Like You're not there
You remind me
That You love me
You have felt the pain
Behind my prayers
Though the storm rages on
I am safe in Your arms

When everything's
Out of control
Your love will not let me go
