

Mighty Lord

Kathy Troccoli

Sends the lightning all across the sky
Sends the rain to a land that's dry
Speaks with thunder in a mighty roar
There's no one else like the mighty Lord
There's no one else

Puts the stars up in outer space
Hung the sun and moon in perfect place
Spins the planets
Lets the comets soar
There's no one else like the mighty Lord
There's no one else

He's the king of creation, yes, He is
He's the all powerful one
Nothing compares with Him, nothing
He's the apex, the firstborn one

Churns the sea and makes it boil
Makes it bubble just like burning oil
Turns the water white and lets it roar
There's no one else like the mighty Lord
There's no one else

'Cause He's the king of creation, yes, He is
He's the all powerful one
Nothing compares with Him, nothing
He's the apex, the firstborn one

Sends the lightning all across the sky
Sends the rain to a land that's dry
Speaks with thunder in a mighty roar
There's no one else like the mighty Lord
There's no one else like the mighty Lord

There's no one else like the mighty Lord
No one else, no one else like Jesus
No one else can free us
