

Open My Eyes

Kathy Troccoli

Promises I receive in faith
And daily I follow You
Trusting Your point of view, oh
Promises I believe and know
I'm counting Your Word is true
But sometimes I get weary

Once again
I need to enter in
Your presence
To rest and catch a glimpse of glory

Open my eyes
Break in through my doubt
Please show how real You are
Cover me with joy and draw me nearer
Open my eyes
Let me see Your image glowin' in my heart
It will keep me hopin', even through the dark
If You'll open my eyes

Confident, You began a change in me
And You'll see it through
I'm holding on to newborn
Confidence, holy expectation
That I will be like You
Although I soon forget

And once again
I need to enter in
Your presence
'Cause there I catch a glimpse of glory

Open my eyes
Break in through my doubt
Please show how real You are
Cover me with joy and draw me nearer
Open my eyes
Let me see Your image glowin' in my heart
It will keep me hopin', even through the dark

Please, show me
Lead me in Your way forever, Lord
And hold me in Your grace
Every day

Open my eyes
Break in through my doubt
Please show how real You are
Cover me with joy and draw me nearer
Open my eyes
Let me see Your image glowin' in my heart
It will keep me hopin', Lord

So won't You open my eyes

Cover me with joy and draw me nearer
Open my eyes
Let me see Your image glowin' in my heart
It will keep me hopin', Lord
You've got to open my eyes...
