Trail Of Lies

Katie Armiger

Left your cell phone at my place Checked the last call saw another girls name Wasn't my lip gloss in your truck No it ain't yours don't press your luck I'm so much more than a pretty face So watch me beat you at your own game You can run But I'm catchin up You leave behind deception like a line of bread crumbs I ain't no fool and the truth about you ain't hard to find I'm on to your trail of lies You're studying late on a Friday night Something about that just don't sound right That lucky shirt you told me you lost I saw it on a bleach blonde walkin round the mall You try to play it off like it ain't no thing Guess what I just met her Now I know her name You can run But I'm catchin up You leave behind deception like a line of bread crumbs Baby I ain't no fool and the truth about you aint hard to find I'm on to your trail of lies Brittney led to Jamie led to Cathy led to Sue And every single thing pointed back at you What ya qonna do boy Nowhere left to hide You can run But I'm catchin up You leave behind deception like a line of bread crumbs Baby I ain't no fool and the truth about you ain't hard to find I'm on to your trail of lies I'm on to your trail of lies I'm on to your trail of lies
