

Feel Alive

Katie Herzig

I feel your heartbeat
I feel the weight of all you leave behind
When all you love has come undone

I know that words are fleeting
I know that you are grieving in your own divide
Holding out with the best of us

But I know that you're getting stronger
And I know that it's worth the time
You better believe that it will get better
That you'll wake up and feel alive

I know that it feels like it'll hurt forever
But we'll make it to the other side
And when you wake up you will remember
What it is to feel alive-
To feel

Feel
(Fe-e-e-e-e-e-e-e-e)
Feel

I know that you are healing
I know that you are feeling every fear inside, without a place to run and hide

If I could show you one thing-
It'd be the light that's on the other side
Holding out for the best of us

Because I know that you're getting stronger
And I know that it's worth the time
You better believe that it will get better
That you'll wake up and feel alive

I know that it feels like it'll hurt forever
But we'll make it to the other side
And when you wake up you will remember
What it is to feel alive-
To feel
(Fe-e-e-e-e-e-e-e-e)
Feel
(Fe-e-e-e-e-e-e-e-e)
Feel

Because I know that you're getting stronger
And I know that it's worth the time
You better believe that it will get better
That you'll wake up and feel alive

I know that it feels like it'll hurt forever
But we'll make it to the other side
And when you wake up you will remember
What it is to feel alive-

To feel
(Fe-e-e-e-e-e-e-e-e-e)
Feel
Feel
