

Holding Us Back

Katie Herzig

Maybe i love you, maybe i just like the sound
But if you disappear you'll still hear when my heart hits the ground
Every touch, of every scene
Is just beautifully broken as, a bird without wings

All we have holding us back
Holding us back
All we have holding us back

For all we have
Whats holding us back?

We'll never know what it's like to be free
How do you show, what can't but should be
There's no explanation only what we can not change
So we'll leave how we met
With nothing the same

All we have, holding us back
Holding us back
All we have, holding us back
Holding us back
All we have, holding us back
Holding us back
All we have
Holding us back

For all we have
What's holding us back?
