

Mad, Mad Men

Katie Melua

Mad, mad men
Wild, wild women
And crazy girls

[Chorus:]
It's always the mad, mad men
The wild, wild women
Who change the world

Oscar - he was a wayward child
No one could foresee him fail
With his pen he went a little while
And ended up in Reading jail

Looking at the world through cold steel bars
Lying in a gutter but looking at the stars

Mad, mad men
And wild, wild women
And crazy girls

[Chorus]

Joan of Arc seemed like a ditsy then
Claiming she was from the lord
But she won her battle and she made her name
She must've had a magic sword

Then somebody shouted heresy
She went up in flames and down in history

Mad, mad men
And wild, wild women
And crazy girls

[Chorus]

Ooh you know it don't even matter
You can be as mad as a hatter too
And you can climb that ladder
To the top!

Mad, mad men
And wild, wild women
And crazy girls

[Chorus]

Who change the world
