I will be the one that will be beside you Even when the stars don't seem so bright Any obstacle that life throws I'll fight through I will be the one I will be the one that can show you hope here Even when the night drowns out the light You will hear my voice even through the darkness I will be the one I don't want, I don't want, I don't want you to feel alone I'll do my best to make you right at home All I want, all I want is for you to be okay I know that soon there'll be a brighter day I will be the one, I will be the one I will be the one, I will be the one Who will love you, who will feel you boy Who will hold you, who will bring you joy Don't you know my soul is bruised and bleeding? When I know that you might be in pain I will find whatever it is you're needing I will be the one And when there are no words to heal you Cause at times you know they can't be just All my empathy will try to feel you I will be the one I don't want, I don't want, I don't want you to feel alone I'll do my best to make you right at home All I want, all I want is for you to be okay I know that soon there'll be a brighter day I will be the one, I will be the one I will be the one, I will be the one Who will love you, who will feel you boy Who will hold you, who will bring you joy I will be the one, I will be the one I will be the one, I will be the one Who will love you, who will feel you boy Who will hold you, who will bring you joy I will be the one, I will be the one Cause you're everything You're my everything Cause you're everything You're my everything I will be the one, I will be the one I will be the one, I will be the one Who will love you, who will feel you boy Who will hold you, who will bring you joy I will be the one, I will be the one I will be the one, I will be the one Who will love you, who will feel you boy

Who will hold you, who will bring you joy
