

Jonah

Kaya Stewart

All these images in my head and all I want is your hands instead
I don't wanna sleep by myself
So don't close the door
I'm just laying here in my bed, cause I can't forget those words you said
Maybe we just need some help
So don't close the door

And I wish I had another word to say my heart's been cured by you
So let me through, Jonah
Jonah

I keep hanging on by a thread, a whole lot better than saying it's dead
So many things were left unsaid
So don't close the door

And I wish I had another word to say my heart's been cured by you
So let me through, Jonah
Jonah
Jonah, yeah yeah yeah, Jonah

Gotta push, push yourself to the limit
Gotta save, save what we created
And it doesn't take a million; just one lover who can't stop giving
Push, push yourself to the limit
Gotta save, save what we created
And it doesn't take a million; just one lover who can't stop giving
Push, push yourself to the limit
Gotta save, save what we created
And it doesn't take a million; just one lover who can't stop giving
