

Back To The Front

Kayak

Bring back the passion, bring on back the thrill
So long that time seems to be standing still If this is war, why haven't I been told right from the start
But now that the battle is on, won't you carry me...

They say that time will heal and so it does Extinguish calling for the dream that was No heart could seem to bear a deeper pain than mine

Regaining courage after all that's been
The winding path of life and worlds unseen
A heart that seemed to go astray and failed to find the road

When living meant drowning in front of the eyes of the world

Oh balance lost when minds had come to grief
Long days in silence giving no relief
Keeping on telling everything turned out the way you planned

Rising too high means one is bound to fall
Look down you'll see we've really lost control
If this is war, why don't we fight, why don't we make a stand
Remember the world that we'd find at the back of beyond As soon as the battle is on, won't you carry me back to the front

Let me dive into minds
Let me follow the signs
After all it's quite easy to see

For a lack of real skill
There's the magical pill
If you want to be sure how you feel

You may tell everyone
That it's over and done
That the crowd can't be wrong
Maybe so, but I tend to believe

It's only love
It's only love
Making me feel we've only just begun

When the images fade
When they turn into shades
Of the statues they once used to be

Going back to the source Letting things run their course
Still you're making it hard to believe

When you tell everyone

That it's over and done
It's the end of the song
Still there's something that's turning the wheel

It's only love
It's only love
Making me feel we've only just begun
